Highlights

We accepted 630 passport applications.

We attended or conducted 134 outreach events around the Cary area (visits to schools, preschools, Three Oaks Assisted Living, Chamber events, and community events).

We helped 88 patrons through our Book an Expert service.

We delivered materials to 12 homebound patrons, at varying frequency, throughout the year.

2,606 people used the Library to early vote between October-November 2018; 926 people voted here on election day, November 6, 2018.

351 people used the Library to early vote in March 2019; 353 people voted here on election day, April 2, 2019.

Over 100 people attended the Library's third annual Dance Party.

20 items were added to the Library of Things and have circulated 217 times.

Our six hotspots have circulated 418 times since being added in February 2017.
